

SEVENTH YEAR.

MARYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 1893.

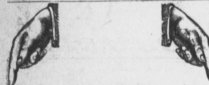

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent most valuable real estate. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notions" free but must show a market value for the space he occupies. A newspaper is a business and its business is to sell space for the most profitable use. Its advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

1-3 OFF!

This means that we will sell, beginning today until the 15th of February, every suit, every pair of pants, every Overcoat (not a garment is reserved) in our house one-third less than the regular legitimate price. It is needless to tell you of the merits of our merchandise. No house in the state competes with us in style and quality.

We Handle Only the Highest Grades of Clothing.

Moreover, we never indulge in fake advertisements. You ask why this tremendous reduction in our prices. We answer, do you know that up to date we have not had a week's cold weather all this winter? We are stuck on Heavy Suits and Overcoats, and for two reasons must unload. The most important is we need the money for thirty odd thousand dollars worth of clothing on hand. The other reason is our spring purchases are beginning to come in. It will take lots of room for them. Look in our windows and you will see what one third off means.

Anna Downing at West Union.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Eanis left yesterday to visit the former's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitch, near Fernside.

All matter for publication must be sent in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

Estlin Wheel Brown at Travel's Fire Insurance—John C. Everett.

Mrs. George T. Hunter was better this morning.

The County Board of Equalization will finish its consideration of complaints today.

If you want the best Clover Seed and Timothy Seed, call at M. C. Russell & Sons.

Mrs. Louisa January of this city has been granted a widow's pension of $8 a month.

Miss Maggie Bradbury died of consumption at Germantown this week, aged 45.

Wyandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. R. M., last night received three applications for adoption.

James A. Kelley of Syracuse, N. Y., is preparing a map of the Brookville and Wellburg Railroad.

John Throckmorton Bate of Jefferson county, the last witness of the marriage of Jefferson Davis to Miss Taylor, is dead at 89.

Hon. James E. Cahill has THE LED-GER's thanks for a pamphlet copy of Governor Bradley's message to the General Assembly.

Our Diamond and Watch bargains have never been equalled. Murphy, the Jeweler's store is headquarters for fine goods at low prices.

"The Mystery of Evil or Why Does't God Kill the Devil?" was the subject of a lecture delivered by United States Judge George R. Sago at the Ninth Street Baptist Church, Cincinnati.

Mr. Hamlet C. Sharp, Secretary of the B. E. Fogie Distilling Company and of the Limestone Building Association, has accepted a position with the Collins & Rudy Lumber Company and will take charge of the books February 1st.

The stockholders of the Augusta and Dover river at a meeting held in Augusta decided by a vote of 55 to 46 to offer their route to the county to be made free.

Colonel and Mrs. S. N. Meyer will move into the residence in the Cox Row lately vacated by Mrs. Katherine Albert, who had occupied it eleven years and four months.

The gross earnings of the L. and N. for the third week in January were $409,260, an increase all along the line—of $28,985 over 1897, of $19,370 over 1896, of $17,730 over 1895, of $26,130 over 1894, and of $20,490 over 1893.

Tomorrow a sale will begin of the stock of clothing now on hand at the I.
Greenstein stand, Market street. The goods must all be sold, and parties looking for bargains in this line should inspect the lot. See advertisement elsewhere.

Dr. W. E. Gault, so well and favorably known here, meets with a cordial welcome in his new home at Portsmouth.
The Blade of that city says:

"Dr. W. E. Gault, for many years associated in the practice of medicine with Dr. Samuel of Mayville, has located here, and will practice his profession in our city at 96 East Second street. In addition to his general practice he will assist Dr. McClure in his night practice. Dr. Gault comes highly recommended as a physician and a gentle man, and will undoubtedly meet with success."

The Hon. R. E. Watkins, Representative from Daviess county, has received from numerous citizens of Carter county an appeal to the Legislature for protection against "Court-house frauds." They request that he introduce a bill "to prohibit attorneys from compromising a suit of any kind for their clients, or selling them out, or dropping them in any shape, and to restore the titles of those who have been defrauded out of their lands by fraudful attorneys."

A RHYMED POEM.

Here is a poem, that was written in 1867 by a girl under twenty years of age, and was highly commended by James Buchanan and John G.
Whitney, the latter of whom wrote the young author that she had truly made the secret of English verse.

You kissed me.

You kissed me! My head Dropped low on your breast
With a feeling of shelter
And infinite rest.

With the holy emotion
My tongue dared not speak Flashed up in a flame From my heart to my cheek.

Your arms held me fast;
Oh! your arms were so bold!
Heart beat against heart
In the passionate fold.

Your glances seemed drawing My soul through my eyes,
As the sun draws the mist
From the sea to the skies.

Your lips clung to mine Till I prayed in my bliss
They might never unloose From that rapturous kiss.

You kissed me! My heart And my breath and my will
In delicious joy
For a moment stood still.

Life had for me then No temptations, no charms,
No visions of happiness Outside of your arms.

And were I this instant
An angel possessed
Of the peace and the joy
That are given the blest,

I would fling my white robes Unrepiningly down,
I would tear from my forehead
Its beautiful crown,

To settle once more
In that haven of rest—
Your lips upon mine,
My head on your breast!

You kissed me! My soul
Is a blissful divine Reeled like a drunken man Foolish with wine;

And I thought 'twere delicious
To die there, if death Would but come while my lips
Were yet moist with your breath:

If I might grow old While your arms clasped me round
In their passionate fold
And these are the questions
I ask day and night:

How my lips taste no more Such exquisite delight?
Would you care if my breast Were my shelter as then,

And if you were here
Would you kiss me again?

Hon. W. A. Byron of Brookville has been admitted to practice in the Court of Appeals.

Mr. James Gordon will on Monday accept a position as clerk at the drugstore of Mr. J. James Wood.

You can buy Sterling Silver Spoons for less money than ever before known this week at McCarthy's, the Jeweler.

Following are those from a distance who attended the funeral yesterday afternoon of Mr. John Wheeler: Mr.
Nich Shaffer, Williamsburg, O.; Mr.
George Shaffer, Cincinnati; Mr. John Shaffer, Ripley; Mr. William Lewis, Ripley; Mr. C. E. Brickett, Cincinnati; Mr.
Will Linn, Ripley; Mr. Matt Armstrong, Lewis county; Mr. and Mrs. John Cox and daughter, Vanceburg; Mr. Robert Wheeler, Cincinnati. Among the floral tributes was one from the Cincinnati Glad Club, pronounced by those who saw it as exceptionally pretty. It was a gun made of the choicest of flowers.

The Queen City will pass down at 6 p.
m. from Pittsburgh.

The Henry M. Stanley passed up last night for the Kanawha river. She will return Sunday morning.

There is nothing to indicate by the weather or river reports that the river will rise during the next twenty-four hours, but it will fall very rapidly. The reports from above are as follows: Oil City 5.3, fell 4; Pittsburgh 13.8, stationary; Wheeling 22.3, fell 2.7; Parkersburg 29.5, fell 1.5; Hinton 4.4, rose 7; Charleston 5.5, stationary; Callettsburg 43.6, rose 1; Portsmouth 46.6, rising. At this point the river is falling, the gauge register 45.4 at 9 o'clock this morning.

A peculiar fact about the Ohio river between this city and Cincinnati is this:
related by Captain Cook Miller:

When the river rises three feet at Portsmouth that amount of a rise may be expected at Cincinnati forty eight hours later. Between Mayville and Cincinnati there is a crooked neck, it is somewhat like the neck of a bottle, and when the water is moving through this gap its progress is retarded as water would in the bottle described. This causes the fluctuations of the river, the rises and falls, its stationary condition and a rise again until the head of a Portsmouth rise has reached there. Monday a three-foot rise the forty eight hours previous at Portsmouth was reported, and was felt at Cincinnati on Monday evening and caused the peculiar sections of the stream that for several hours previous to 6 p. m. Monday was stationary at 99.3, then rose one-tenth and remained stationary at 99.4 until 11 p. m. when it rose another tenth to 99.5, was stationary until 7 a. m. Tuesday and rose one-tenth again at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. C. E. Robertson of Augusta, Ky.,

MRS. MARGARET FRANKLIN.

A Former Resident of This City Dies in Cincinnati Yesterday.

Mrs. Margaret Franklin, for years a resident of this city, died yesterday at her home on West Fourth street, Cincinnati.

Mrs. Franklin was a sister of Mr. John Fitzgerald of Lexington and the late William Fitzgerald of this city. One daughter, Miss Maggie Franklin, survives.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed but the remains will be brought to Mayville for interment.

BLOODY RICTION.

A Five-Cornered Fight at Second and Wall Streets Yesterday.

The War in Cuba wasn't in it when it came to an afternoon "scrap" at Second and Wall streets yesterday.

The belligerents were Ern Gilbert, Peggy Hassan, Jo. Mays, John Jenkins and a man named Peters.

When the Police here in sight the fighters fled, or at least three of them did, and they are still fleeing.

Hasson and Jenkins were arrested, and the latter resembled a fellow who had been eating a sawmill or a rockcrusher that it will take several squares of court-plaster and a few quarts of amica to make him presentable.

Nobody seems able to tell just what brand of whisky is responsible for the trouble.

We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we are constantly proving the incorrectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eye-ball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

Amusements.

Another well pleased audience left the Opera-house last night. The play "Tris" was the bill, with Miss Mina Gennell in the title role. This little lady is as vivacious a soubrette as we have seen for some time. Mr. Stanley was at home in a neat bit of character work that was possible in such a character as Judge Andreas Loretto. The Ferguson Brothers again received an ovation. Their work is wonderful and must be seen to be appreciated. Tonight the Company will present a society drama entitled "Forget-Me Not," with Miss Fates in the title role. The Ferguson Brothers will appear in the sketch entitled "The Drum Major and the Yellow Kid."

Jones was on his last legs. In fact, it was a matter of but a few days for him, so he sent for three Ministers, a Presbyterian, a Methodist and a Jewish Rabbi, and told them that if they each put $100 in his coffin he would leave them $5,000 each in his will. He died shortly after, and the day after he was buried the Methodist Minister met the Presbyterian and asked him if he had put his $100 in the casket.

"I did," said the Presbyterian Minister.

"In what form did you put it in?"
asked the Methodist Minister.

"In five $20 gold pieces."

"Well, you'll get your $5,000."

"How did you put yours in?"

"I put in a crisp new $100 bill."

"Well, you'll get your $5,000, too."

Just then they saw the Rabbi across the street, and they called him over and asked him in what form he had put his $100 in the casket.

"I put in my check for $300 and took out the change."

EMBROIDERIES—Just such edgings as you are in everyday need of, especially if there are children to be dressed. Swiss and French makes, assorted in three widths, 1 1/2, 2 and 4 inches; inserting to match, fine Nainsook, exquisite effects. Principally hand made goods that will give lots of wear. This sale brings the prices for such qualities from 8c, 15c, 25c, to 50c, 90c, 10c.

FOR INFANTS WEAR the medium and higher grades of White Goods. The daintier styles cost no more now than did plainer ones formerly. The same excellence intrinsically, but better and bigger buying, helped by manufacturer's money need, has lowered prices. Special this week—Snowy Dimities, excellent quality, 50c a yard. Standard goods but not at standard prices.

LACES—This year laces will be a close third to ribbons and gingham. Fashion has proclaimed Laces for '98. We have a beautiful assortment, just in. Too many to speak of in detail—only space for one bargain, though dozens are clamoring for notice. Tension Laces, 3 inches wide, valued at 15c. to 10c. Got them very cheap and will sell them at 12c. a yard. Another trophy of good trading.
